COMMENTS & OBSERVATIONS:

Wenatchee market trends continue along the same path as seen in the past few months. Current month sales show 57 homes were sold in the Wenatchee Area. YTD the average number of homes sold each month is 58. Also, following a similar trend is home sales by dollar volume and number of units sold, which currently are down 28%-29% each.

Home sales by price range show most home sales occur in the $200,000-$250,000 price range, followed by $151,000-$200,000, $251,000-$300,000 and $301,000-$350,000. See the "Average Number of Homes Sold per month by Price Range" on the previous page for other price breakdowns.

Median home prices have stabilized when compared to last year, but down approximately 6.8% from the peak in March.
